

A mannequin is shown from the waist down, holding a large, glossy red apple-shaped perfume bottle. The bottle has a silver, metallic handle that curves over the top. The mannequin's hands are positioned to support the bottle from the sides. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Cat Sirot

Her hair represents the flames of the Statue of Liberty.

Between her fingers is a red cherry, a traditional symbol of pleasure, ready to spread its tasty juices.

Freedom remains the greedy fruit of existence.

The cherry sculpture can be changed according to the current mood, passion, or season ...

It's up to you to create what you want!

Titre de l'oeuvre : Liberté

Format : 184 cm sans le socle, 210 cm avec le socle

Format du socle : 50 x 50 x 11 cm

Technique : Résine

Numérotation : 1/8

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized, cursive letter 'S' with a dot above it, possibly representing the artist's name.